Article 1 These regulations are established to honor the professors who have outstanding contributions in teaching, doing researches, or administration by titling them as Professor Emeritus upon retirement from the University.

Article 2 Professors who meet the following criteria may be considered for emeriti designation:

1. Shown excellence in teaching or taking administrative positions, having significant contributions to the University's planning, building, and development, having a minimum of ten years of service as a full-time professor of the University.
2. Having made outstanding contributions to the University in the field of scholarship, having been famous internationally, and having a minimum of ten years of service as a full-time professor of the University.
3. Having been the University's lecture course professor.
4. Having achieved high reputation or accomplishments in academic or professional fields, having made concrete contributions to the University's research teams, and having a minimum of ten years of service as a full-time professor or a Distinguished Professor of the University.

Article 3 The contract of Professor Emeritus is lifelong. If the professor is found in the situations mentioned in Teacher's Act, the President will terminate his/her contract.

Article 4 Candidates of Professor Emeritus shall be recommended by the appointing unit to both the college dean and the President for approval; the appointment shall also be approved with the consent of members attending Faculty Evaluation Committee of three levels.

Article 5 Professor Emeritus is a title without remuneration and the obligation to teach; colleges or departments may invite Professor Emeritus to teach related courses with an hourly pay in accordance with the payment standard for part-time faculty.

Article 6 Professor Emeritus can use all public facilities in the University. Professor Emeritus can use the University's research rooms or labs with applications from the appointing unit and with approvals from relevant departments or offices and from the President as well. Professor Emeritus may direct graduate students with their theses or participate in the job of lecturing and doing research.

Article 7 Professor Emeritus who has been appointed as a lecture course professor before retiring from the University can be specially appointed as 'Emeritus Lecture Course'. In order to get assistance from 'Emeritus Lecture Course' to promote teaching and researching, the school can make a special budget for the pay and expenses needed.

Article 8 These regulations are adopted by Administrative Committee, as shall amendments when they are made.
